During clinical studies among people using the Step 1 diet without added fiber, their total cholesterol fell by 8%, LDL cholesterol fell by 6%, and HDL cholesterol fell by 16%.

"My feeling, and that of most investigators, is that the first thing the patients tell you is they noticed they were no longer shedding hair like they had before.